FRIDAY JUNE 26, 2020

UD in the news June 19-26

Local and regional media covered UD's plans to return to campus this fall. Historian Ashleigh Lawrence-Sanders continued to lend her expertise to the national discussion on Confederate monuments. Leading legal education publication preLaw magazine featured the School of Law's strategies for remarkably improving its bar passage rate, which the magazine listed as best in the nation.

The Conversation re-ran communication expert Chad Painter's piece on how the New York media covered the Stonewall riots, which was picked up by the widely read outlet Vox.

WVXU-FM, Cincinnati's NPR affiliate, talked to Paul Schlottman in the School of Law and Sabra Tomb at the Air Force Research Lab about a partnership between their organizations to teach scientists how to protect intellectual property. WOSU-AM in Columbus, Ohio, also picked up the story.
